Multicultural Education Curriculum

Presented by Annie, Jamie, Adam Walter

THE SCHOOL VISION

- ❖ By studying different cultures, encourages students to develop an appreciation for different beliefs, values, traditions, languages, and perspectives.
- ❖ It promotes cross-cultural communication, adaptability, and open-mindedness, preparing students for success in an increasingly diverse and globalized workforce.
- ❖ We also hold lots of Multicultural Festival programs to lift a rich English atmosphere for the students.
- ❖ Enrich students' learning experiences as well as advance their self-learning abilities.

History of our Cultural events

For many years our school has held events celebrating different cultures which help us share knowledge and bring the local community together.

► CHINESE CULTURE DAY

► HALLOWEEN

History of our Cultural events

- ▶ These range in variety but always try to engage the parents and school community to learn and celebrate different events.

Pancake Month

‘Pancake Day’ starts right before people’s fasting practice. To avoid the waste of uneaten eggs, butter, milk and other ingredients, people will mix the leftover ingredients at home to make pancakes. This tradition has been passed down and becomes ‘Pancake Day’ nowadays.

People believe that hot pancakes symbolise the Sun, and eating pancakes empower them from the God of the Sun to welcome the spring seasons and new beginnings.

May Day

The celebrations have their origin from ancient agricultural rituals celebrating the fertile soil.

These celebrations include collecting wildflowers and green branches, weaving wreaths, coronations of May Kings and May Queens and Maypole decorations. People sing and dance with full of passion and vitality around the Maypoles.
