

Module 1: Atypical pneumonia – a call for understanding, action and reflection

Teachers' Guide

A. Is Hong Kong facing an unprecedented challenge?

- Through the study of similar historical events, students will be able to realize that the situation faced by Hong Kong is not unprecedented. This approach also clarifies some misunderstandings about the spread of atypical pneumonia.
- Students are asked to complete one of the three activities according to their abilities.

B. "Atypical" globalization

- Students will be able to understand certain key features of globalization in the express spread of atypical pneumonia on a global scale.
- With reference to international cooperation in dealing with the spread of atypical pneumonia, students will be able to reflect on the limitations of individual countries or regions in resolving global problems.

C. Are we living in "a global village with no strangers"?

- From Source 1, students will be able to learn about the ideals of "global village".
- From the global responses to the spread of atypical pneumonia, students will be able to see possible conflicts in globalization.
- Students will be able to reflect on how they can contribute to Hong Kong under globalization.